

AVAILABLE PROFESSIONAL WMS CONSULTANT

Profile: A detailed oriented logistics professional with an IT background. His personal value and leadership style are recognized as caring and involved with the team, honest and sincere, straightforward and able to let the team grow without losing sight of the goals. Excellent written and oral communication skills; capable of explaining complex issues in easy-to-understand terms. Proficient in a wide range of logistics processes and solutions.

Knowledge and experience: BY WMS, BY JDA Discrete. BY JDA Dispatcher. Moca SQL Reports and Labels.

Sector experience: Contract logistics.

Region: Worldwide.

Availability: 40 hours, available on a secondment basis.

Responsibilities

The IT project manager supports the project team by providing the tools and resources that create the right circumstances and atmosphere for flawless delivery. He manages quality of developments, supports team members and guards the project scope, timelines and implementation budget during all phases of the project. Always in close collaboration with the Business owners and the customer to maximize the project result and user experience. The WMS Consultants play variety of advisory roles and guides business through functionalities of specific software product and helps to adopt the system to operational processes in most beneficial manner. From managing the projects, performing system configuration and design software modifications if required. Business Consultants also can take responsibility for coding and unit testing enhancements, integrations, reports, labels and other components of the system with close respect to design specifications and internal company standards.

Want to know more?

Do you want more information about this professional or interested in our other available WMS-consultants? Contact Leo Keller at 06 22 30 24 60 or lkeller@g-nius.nl.